

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY FORM

As established by University policy in compliance with Texas Education Code 51.917, all faculty must attest to their primary language to ensure that courses offered for credit at this institution are taught in the English language and that all faculty members are proficient in the use of the English language, except for the use of a foreign language to conduct foreign language courses.

All faculty are required by law to establish their primary language by completing this form. This form will be permanently filed with your contract. Those for whom English is not a primary language will be required to participate in an assessment program, and future information about this program will be provided when appropriate.

I certify that my primary language is: _____
