

Policies of the University of North Texas	Chapter 7
07.017 Senior Citizens Auditing Courses	Student Affairs

Policy Statement. The Board of Regents may allow a senior citizen (65 years of age or older) to audit any course offered by the institution without payment of a fee if space is available (Texas Education Code, Subchapter 54, Section 54.210 as added in 1975).

Application of Policy. Students.

Definitions. None.

Procedures and Responsibilities.

Permission shall be secured from the chair of the department and the appropriate dean to enroll as auditor and observer without credit. Such enrollment permits library privileges, but not instruction in applied music or physical education, the use of laboratory equipment/supplies, studios, or admission to university-sponsored fine arts (Board of Regents, August 29, 1975).

References and Cross-references.

Texas Education Code, Subchapter 54, Section 54.210

Forms and Tools. None.

Approved: 8/1/1994

Effective:

Revised: 8/98; 5/02; 5/11*

* Format only